SSU at a glance

The resources of a University ...

6,000 students from 36 states and 50 foreign countries
29 undergraduate and 8 graduate programs
200 full-time tenure-track faculty, 85 percent with terminal degrees, including National Endowment for the Humanities scholars and Fulbright professors.
NCAA Division III Athletics, 9 men's, 10 women's intercollegiate teams; 22 intramural sports

... with small-school opportunities.

Approachable faculty (17:1 student/faculty ratio)
Honors program with dedicated faculty at the Bellavance Honors Center. Ten residence complexes including traditional, co-ed, suite and apartment styles.

The security of state support ...

1999-00 tuition, room, board and fees: $9,746 per year for Maryland residents; $14,140 per year out-of-state.

A library with over 800,000 volumes, periodicals, microforms and databases including word processing and computer labs. Access to collections throughout the country.

... with the benefits of private funding.

Altogether, SSU awards nearly $1 million in academic scholarships each year. More than $24 million in private endowments supports some of those scholarships and provides for some of the finest educational programs.

In an ideal—and idyllic—location:

Salisbury, MD, is 30 miles west of the Atlantic Ocean and Ocean City, MD, and 20 miles east of the Chesapeake Bay; 2 hours from Baltimore, Washington, D.C. and Wilmington, DE. The campus is 2 1/2 hours from Norfolk, VA, and Philadelphia, PA, and 4 1/2 hours from New York.

Come see us—in person, or in cyberspace. We'd love to see your smiling face, but if you can't get here, check out our Web site.

We're at <http://www.ssu.edu>.

SSU's campus is in an attractive, residential neighborhood of stately homes on sculpted lawns, less than one-half mile from the banks of the Wicomico River. The campus includes 34 buildings on 125 landscaped acres. Students walk from one end of campus to the other in about 5 minutes.

Head Coach Dawn Chamberlin

Dawn Chamberlin completed her 13th season as head coach of the Salisbury State University field hockey program in 1999, with another championship season to add to her long list of accomplishments with the Sea Gull program. Chamberlin, who already ranks among the most successful coaches in the school's history, completed her 13th season with a 15-4 record and guided the Gulls to their fifth straight conference championship and 15th appearance in the NCAA Championship Tournament.

Since her first season in 1987, the Sea Gulls have qualified for the NCAA Tournament 12 times, with three appearances in the Final Four. The program has produced 21 national All-Americans and 57 all-region players. SSU's 171-67-8 record under Chamberlin translates to a winning percentage of .718.

Chamberlin, who registered her 150th career victory with a 4-0 win over Goucher during the 1998 season, has been honored as the NFHCA's South Region Coach-of-the-Year three times in the 1990s. She has also been named the Capital Athletic Conference's Coach of the Year in each of the past five seasons. Her Sea Gulls carry a 36-game CAC winning streak into the 2000 season.

Chamberlin is a 1985 graduate of the University of Iowa, where she was a four-year letterwinner on the highly successful field hockey team. The Hawkeyes won the Big Ten championship outright from 1981 to 1983, before sharing the top spot in 1984. The '84 squad finished second in the nation. Chamberlin, Iowa's co-captain as both a junior and senior, was also a member of the national indoor championship team and was selected to the All-Big Ten team during her senior year.

While at Iowa, she also received the Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Academic Award (1982-1985) and the Physical Education Academic Achievement Award (1983-1985). Chamberlin, who also coaches the SSU women's lacrosse team in the spring, earned her Masters of Education from Salisbury State in 1987 and is currently working toward her doctorate.

A Tradition of Success

During the past decade, Salisbury State has emerged as one of the premier field hockey programs among NCAA Division III institutions. The Sea Gulls are one of just eight schools to have captured the national championship since its inception in 1981, claiming the top prize with an undefeated 21-0 campaign in 1986. Since their first visit to the NCAA postseason tournament in 1984, the Gulls have become a regular contender for the national title, with appearances in 15 of the last 16 NCAA postseason tournaments through the 1999 season.

In addition to the national championship in 1986, SSU has advanced to the Final Four on three other occasions, finishing as a national semifinalist in 1987, 1988 and 1992. Additionally, the Gulls have been national quarterfinalists four other times since 1989. Salisbury's outstanding facility has also served as a regional host site for the national championship tournament on four occasions, including in both 1996 and 1997.

The Sea Gulls notched 10 consecutive winning seasons from 1983 to 1992 and finished in the top ten in the final rankings in each of those seasons. The Sea Gulls finished the 1997 regular season as the number one ranked team in the final Division III national poll. SSU has reached double-figures in wins in 15 of the last 17 seasons and has averaged 13 wins per year during Dawn Chamberlin's 13 seasons as head coach. In six seasons as a member of the Capital Athletic Conference, the Sea Gulls have compiled a 40-2 record. SSU won its fifth straight CAC crown in 1999 and carries a 36-game conference winning streak into the 2000 season.

Quality programs are comprised of talented individuals, and the Sea Gulls have certainly had their fair share in recent years. Salisbury State is well represented on the national and regional all-star teams each season. During Chamberlin's tenure, the Gulls have produced 21 national All-Americans and had a total of 57 players selected to the all-South Region team. Additionally, Chamberlin has been honored as the region's Coach-of-the-Year three times and the Capital Athletic Conference's Coach-of-the-Year five times, including 1999.

Gulls Place Six on 1999 All-Conference Team

Salisbury State, the 1999 Capital Athletic Conference regular season and tournament champion, placed seven players on the all-conference first and second teams and also swept all three of the CAC's individual postseason awards.

Senior back Gina Dean was named the CAC's Player of the Year, freshman Jill Cressor was selected as Rookie of the Year and Sea Gull Head Coach Dawn Chamberlin was tabbed by her peers as Coach of the Year for the fifth straight season. Dean's selection also marks the fourth straight season that a Sea Gull has won the Player of the Year award.

A closer look at the Sea Gulls player honored:

Gina Dean (Pocomoke, MD/Pocomoke HS)—Dean, a senior back, earns first team recognition for the second straight year and also adds CAC Player of the Year honors. She has been the backbone of SSU's defense for the past two seasons and helped the Gulls post a league-low 0.84 goals against average in 1999. Dean's only goal this season also proved to be the game-winner in the CAC Championship Game win over Mary Washington.

Marie Brewington (Salisbury, MD/James M. Bennett HS)—Finished the year as Salisbury's second-leading scorer with 13 goals, four assists and 30 total points. The sophomore forward had four games in 1999 when she scored at least two goals. She completed her second season with 20 career goals and 44 total points.

Mary Wilgus (Frankford, DE/Indian River HS)—The senior midfielder moves to the first team in 1999 after earning second team honors in 1998. She finished the season with five goals and five assists for 15 total points, and capped her career with 11 goals, 13 assists and 35 points.

Beth Getty (Elkton, MD/Elkton HS)—Another senior midfielder who earns first team all-CAC status in 1999 after claiming second team honors the previous season. She collected three goals and five assists in 1999, including the game-winning goal in the regular season finale against rival Frostburg.

Three other Sea Gull players were named to the all-conference second team: sophomore midfielder Tara Webster (Deal Island, MD/Washington HS), sophomore back Katie Richardson (Hebron, MD/Mardela HS) and sophomore goalie Joanna Fenske (Ewing, NJ/Ewing HS).

Salisbury State, which finished 15-4 overall, won the CAC championship for the fifth straight year, and qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the 15th time in the last 16 seasons. The Sea Gulls also carry a 36-game conference winning streak into their first CAC game next season.

SSU's Athletics Philosophy

Salisbury State University, a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) Division III, offers 19 intercollegiate sports for men and women. In addition to NCAA membership, SSU competes as a member of the Capital Athletic Conference (CAC) and the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC).

As a member of the NCAA's Division III, Salisbury State places the highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience. In doing so, it seeks to strengthen the integration of objectives and programs in athletics with academic and developmental objectives, and to assure the integration of athletes with other students.

SSU places special importance on the impact of athletics on the participants, with emphasis on the internal constituency (students, alumni and special friends) rather than on the general public and its entertainment needs.

The SSU athletics program is further characterized by the following principles:

- Participants receive the same treatment as other students. They have no unique privileges in admission, academic advising, course selection, grading, living accommodations or financial aid. Similarly, athletes are not denied rights and opportunities that would be available to them as non-athletes.
- Sports for men and women are given equal emphasis and the desired quality of competition is similar in all sports.
- Students are supported in their efforts to reach high levels of performance by providing them with adequate facilities, competent coaching and appropriate competitive opportunities with students from similar institutions.
- SSU strives to make the student-athlete's participation in intercollegiate athletics an enriching experience, and holds genuine concern for each participant's welfare. The intercollegiate program's foremost goal at all times is to supplement and enrich the first priority of the University, which is academic accomplishment.
